

MEDICAL RELEASE & MEDIA PERMISSION SLIP

MEDICAL RELEASE

ASU-Newport requires an Emergency Medical Release for each student attending the 2017 Summer Camp Program to be signed by the parent or guardian.

"In an emergency requiring medical attention for which I shall pay, I authorize the doctors of the nearest hospital to act for me according to their best judgment. I also authorize minor first aid as needed for my child. I do hereby fully release, discharge, and agree to indemnify and hold harmless ASU-Newport, its officers, agents, and employees from any and all claims from injuries, damages or loss that my child may suffer on account of their participation in said event."

WHY SHOULD MY CHILD ATTEND MYTHBUSTERS CAMP?

Has your child ever wanted to bust a myth?

Does your child like discovering how things work?

Is your child between entering 3rd grade and exiting 6th grade?

If you said YES
to any of those questions,
this is the camp for your child!

Students will learn how to bust myths by helping conduct experiments in different areas at ASUN.

Give your curious child a chance to explore in a safe environment with experts
from many fields of study!

Camp Location:
Walton Hall Room
Newport Campus

Camp Times:
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

BEHAVIOR POLICY

Please impress on your child that they are attending college this summer and will be expected to behave accordingly. There are credit classes being held as well as the day-to-day business of ASU-Newport taking place at this time, and behavioral problems at Discovery College will not be tolerated. Parents will be notified immediately after the first violation. The second violation will result in suspension from the program. Any student involved in a fight during Discovery College will be suspended from the program.

CANCELLATION/REFUND POLICY

Arkansas State University-Newport reserves the right to cancel any offering that does not meet student enrollment requirements. If your child is unable to attend Discovery College, a written request for a refund must be submitted no later than the Monday before each camp. There will be a $15 refund processing fee. No refunds will be made after Discovery College has begun.
