GENERAL INFORMATION

The Arkansas Geographical Critical Needs Minority Teacher Scholarship Program is designed to provide scholarships to Black-American, Hispanic-American, Asian-American and Native-American students who will be attending public or private institutions of higher education in the State of Arkansas with approved teacher education programs or at an accredited state-supported community college. Recipients who maintain eligibility may receive the scholarship for a maximum of four (4) academic years or until such time as they have completed certification requirements. Participating scholars may receive up to $1,500.00 per academic year for full-time attendance; up to $750.00 for part-time attendance; however, the scholarship, when totaled with other sources of Title IV student financial aid, may not exceed the total cost of attendance at the institution to be attended. Also, scholars must agree to teach in the Delta or in a geographical area of the state in which there exists a critical shortage of teachers, as designated by the State Board of Arkansas.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

An Applicant must:

1. Be a Black-American, Hispanic-American, Asian-American or Native-American;
2. Be enrolled as a full-time student (full-time is defined as a minimum of twelve college semester credit hours) or the equivalent, (excluding correspondence courses) or part-time student (part-time is defined as a minimum of six semester credit hours) but less than twelve semester credit hours or the equivalent (excluding correspondence courses) in an Arkansas public or independent 4-year or 2-year institution;
3. Agree, in writing, of an intention to teach in the Delta or a geographical area of the State in which there exists a critical shortage of teachers, as designated by the Arkansas State Board of Education;
4. Have successfully completed the core curriculum established by the State Board of Education and the Arkansas Higher Education Coordinating Board by earning a 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Applicants, who have not completed the core curriculum by the end of the senior year of high school due to unavailability of the courses in the applicant's high school, shall have a grace period of twelve (12) months from the date of high school graduation in which to make up any course deficiencies.
5. Have a 2.50 on a 4.0 scale in the core curriculum courses, if attending an approved four-year institution or 2.50 on a 4.0 scale in the core curriculum courses if attending an approved two-year institution; and,
6. Have scored nineteen (19) or above on the ACT composite or the equivalent as defined by the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff.

7. CONTINUED ELIGIBILITY

The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff will renew awards for succeeding years to recipients who continue to meet the criteria set forth in 1-6 above, and who complete at least 24 semester credit hours (or the equivalent) unless they are a part-time student. Part-time students must complete 12 semester credit hours or the equivalent. A new application must be submitted by July 5 of each year.

SCHOLAR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

It is the scholar's responsibility to notify the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, in writing, of any change in status within 21 days after submission of their application. These changes include: name, address, telephone number, social security number, institution, full-time status, or course of study.

Students may transfer their scholarship to another eligible institution by notifying the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff, in writing, by August 01 for the fall term and January 01 for the Winter/Spring terms. Failure to comply will result in funds being returned to the Arkansas Department of Education.

Scholars have an obligation to teach full-time in the Delta or in a geographical area of the state in which there exists a critical shortage of teachers, as designated by the State Board of Education, one year for each year the scholarship assistance received. If the scholar withdraws from the Teacher Education Program or does not fulfill the teaching commitment, the scholarship shall convert to a loan, which must be repaid with accrued interest over a period not to exceed five (5) years, excluding any deferment period.

Acts 1310 of 1995 and 1313 of 1997 require criminal background checks for new teachers and prohibit persons guilty of certain criminal offenses from receiving or holding a teacher license in Arkansas. The specific statutory language is enclosed for your information. If you are selected as a scholarship recipient, you must certify that you have not been convicted of any of the twenty-nine (29) felonies listed on the attached page in Arkansas or any other state.

DISBURSEMENT POLICY

The scholarship will be divided equally according to the number of terms at each institution: three payments for those institutions on trimesters and two payments for those institutions on semesters. Funds will be mailed to the institution's financial aid office to be disbursed to recipients according to the institution's disbursement policy.

Acts 1310 of 1995 and 1313 of 1997 states: On and after July 01, 1996, each first-time applicant for a license by the State Board of Education shall be required to apply to the Identification Bureau of the Arkansas State Police for state and nationwide criminal records check, to be conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The check shall conform to the applicable federal standards and shall include the taking of fingerprints. Such applicant shall sign a release of information to the State Department of Education and shall be responsible to the Arkansas State Police for the payment of any fee associated with the criminal records check.

Act 1313 of 1997 states:

No person shall be eligible to receive or hold a license by the State Board of Education if that person has pleaded guilty, nolo contendere, or been found guilty of any of the following offenses by any court in the State of Arkansas or of any similar offense by a court in another state:

1. Capital murder
2. Murder in the first and second degrees

Important Note: Awards for the Arkansas Geographical Critical Needs Minority Teacher Scholarship, as for all financial aid programs administered by the Arkansas Department of Higher Education, are dependent on the availability of funds. While it is not anticipated, it is possible that a reduction in state revenues could reduce the funds available for this program. If such a situation occurs, the Department of Higher Education will determine the most equitable means of reducing funding and all individuals affected will be notified immediately.
